

As Americans strive to live longer and healthier lives, the Allied Medical industry is booming. There are tremendous growth opportunities within miscellaneous medical liability insurance, especially as more professionals are performing new and non-traditional medical procedures. Today's litigious society demands comprehensive insurance protection for these specialty healthcare providers, and McGowan, Donnelly & Oberheu, LLC (MDO) can help. MDO has access to numerous markets which have broad appetites for healthcare related professions. Below are a few areas where we excel.
